The Victoria & Albert Museum in London sees CEDIA name the winners of the 2019 EMEA Awards, with winners including UK integrator Perfect Integration, Indian CI specialist Sound Sense and distributor Habibtech.

The black tie event commemorates the best projects and companies in the AV industry from France, India, S. Africa, UAE, the UK and USA. The ceremony started with a drinks reception in the Museum Dome. Following that the 400 industry professionals in attendance headed through the Raphael Gallery, the largest and most famous part of the museum, where CEDIA global president and CEO Tabatha O'Connor opened proceedings before attendees enjoy a three-course meal.

Before the actual awards ceremony, British actress and comedian Sally Philips took to the stage
