Crestron also accuses Savant of using "tactics to 'shortcut' its success the marketplace".

This dispute started off late September 2010, with Savant accusing Crestron of "threatening or financially dis-incentivizing dealers who offer or express an interest in offering Savant products". Savant CEO Robert Madonna also alleged that some Crestron documents lie about Savant products.

In other words, the legal exchange of legally harsh words between the two companies will go on for at least the next few months...
