

Control4 names Atlantis AV Solutions as UK Dealer of the Year and Canseda AB as EMEA Distributor of the Year

During the company's annual International Dealer event, held during ISE, this year's awards reflected a record number of dealer project submissions for 9 different awards categories,

Recognizing dealer creativity and ambition, James and Giles took home the award for Most Innovative Control4 Project

, for their work on a period Victorian Holland Park villa in West London. The basement is complete relaxation area consisting of a home cinema, gym, massage room, steam room, sauna, and full-size squash court. The unique space has a ballroom that can comfortably hold 100 people for dancing, or with the touch of a button the floor drops to reveal an expansive swimming pool. By integrating the HVAC and lighting control systems with a high power audio system, James and Giles completely changes the ambience based on how the room is being used.

Control4 also presented Intelligent Controls with the 4Thought Award for Outstanding Charitable Contribution for their work with Francis House Children's Hospice in South Manchester. Intelligent Controls outfitted the Hospice, which provides a home and care for children diagnosed with life threatening or life limiting conditions, with an integrated Control4 solution that spans eight bedrooms, two self-contained apartments, a 3D cinema room and a multi-sensory music therapy suite that can be controlled from multiple points around the
