

Front door control reaches the wrists as the August Smart Lock gets Apple Watch support via iOS app update, allowing users to lock and unlock the devices with "just a swipe and a tap."

The Apple Watch app is more or less identical to its iPhone sibling. As well as locking and unlocking it also provides a recent activity log and real time notifications whenever the door is unlocked.

The updated August Smart Lock is available now from the Apple App Store.

Go Introducing August for Apple Watch