Eyeline Video Surveillance Software

Written by Bob Snyder
01. 11. 2011

Eyeline is a video surveillance software for Windows. It records a single security camera or it can manage a 100+ camera system.

You can view camera footage on site or from a remote location. You can use automatic motion detection on individual cameras

Eyeline is for video monitoring of offices, buildings, retail stores-- and as residential security for monitoring property, entrances, pets and children's rooms.

Go Eyeline